

Don Williams Traces October, 1987

*One of two albums released on the Capitol Records label, Traces was released on October 14, 1987, and represented a return to traditional Don Williams style. Although his lengthy streak of number one hits had come to an end, Don Williams' relationship with the country charts had not. Both "Old Coyote Town" and "Another Place, Another Time" charted at number five, while "Desperately" and "I Wouldn't Be a Man" charted at seven and nine respectively. Traces was the first Don Williams album to be released on CD, as well as vinyl and cassette, a sign of the changing times.*

Don Williams Traces October, 1987

Song Title: Desperately
Album Title: Traces
Release Date: October, 1987
Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams
Songwriters: Jamie O'Hara/Kevin Welch

Song Title: Easy Touch
Album Title: Traces
Release Date: October, 1987
Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams
Songwriters: Charlie Black/Tommy Rocco/Rory Michael Bourke

Song Title: Come From the Heart
Album Title: Traces
Release Date: October, 1987
Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams
Songwriters: Richard Leigh/Susana Clark

Song Title: Running Out of Reasons to Run
Album Title: Traces
Release Date: October, 1987
Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams
Songwriters: Jim Rushing/J.D.Martin

Song Title: I Wouldn't Be a Man
Album Title: Traces
Release Date: October, 1987
Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams
Songwriters: Mike Reid/Rory Michael Bourke

Song Title: Looking Back
Album Title: Traces
Release Date: October, 1987
Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams
Songwriters: Belford Hendricks/Brook Benton/Clyde Otis

Don Williams Traces October, 1987

Song Title: Til I Can't Take It Anymore

Album Title: Traces

Release Date: October, 1987

Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams

Songwriters: Clyde Otis/Dorian Burton

Song Title: Another Place, Another Time

Album Title: Traces

Release Date: October, 1987

Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams

Songwriters: Bob McDill/Paul Harrison

Song Title: Old Coyote Town

Album Title: Traces

Release Date: October, 1987

Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams

Songwriters: Larry Boone/Paul Nelson/Gene Nelson

Song Title: You Love Me Through It All

Album Title: Traces

Release Date: October, 1987

Producer: Garth Fundis/Don Williams

Songwriters: Hunter Moore/Niles Borop